Hei Oman TV, this comment will precede a cut and paste copy of my most recent comment on Kwaku Baako trashing Kennedy Agyapong posted by another Channel (. Yes, there is nothing wrong with the INVESTIGATOR being INVESTIGATED. Real or Fake Findings, Kennedy Agyapong has opened Ghanaians eyes to the side of Anas' supposed Invisibility, that even the top most world's investigators get investigated too (Read World News and topics in Investigative Journalism). Ghanaians are getting too excited about this Anas issue but some of us know Anas is a Traitor, Selfish and Unpatriotic to our continent. (More to this later).

More Fire!? Anas' face can be exposed easily. Any enlightened mind knows that Anas would not wear mask when he applies for visa or travels by air internationally or domestically since we all know that he does not own private jet. Anas was raised in Ghana, attended school there, even if he has changed his name or other identity, there are people who know his real face. I always insist that for every story, there is the other version. Any visual artist who is well trained can easily give an artist rendition of who Anas is looking at him wearing the mask. We can't be fooled for all the time. Think Beyond is my new slogan. No comments on your analysis now.

Please please please, it's time you guys stop mentioning the word honourable added to his name agyapong, he doesn't merit that name. He's a man of his own interests, Bravo Oman.
